FREE PROMOTION

of your Club

The G&L Council receives an invitation to have an information table at various beading and gem shows where we often have visitors from all over the State visiting friends and relations in the area and who are interested in learning more about our arts. We would love to be able to tell them about YOUR CLUB.

You are welcome to send in club information pages and show information pages that we can hand to these visitors. It would also be helpful to have an up to date name and phone number or email that interested visitors can be directed to.

You can send them to the Secretary, PO Box 188, Orange 2800.
