Message from the President

Well 2025 GEMBOREE is over and I would like to Congratulate Western Suburbs for winning the Ray Powell Trophy for Champion Club.

NSW/ACT won 15 of the 29 trophies, QLD won 8, Victoria won 5 and SA won 1.

To all competitors, well done it is an achievement to compete in a National GEMBOREE and represent you Club.

The education courses will recommence when all the committee returns from the GEMBOREE.

Don't forget the GEMKHANA Competition schedule is on the Gem and Lapidary Council website.

2025 GEMBOREE Missing Entries

The 2025 GEMBOREE is memorable for the wrong reason. For the first time in the GEMBOREE history entries have gone missing in the mail.

Four Sections - N 1B/AA.7 with 6 entries, O 2B/AA.2 with 16 entries, I 2B/AA. 3 with 6 entries and N 2B/AA.4 with 7 entries (total 35 entries) were sent from the Competition Co-Ordinator in an Express Post bag to a judge in north Victoria.

The parcel did not arrive at the Judges residence. All the tracking indicated that the parcel had arrived. The Competition Co-Ordinator followed up with Australia Post but there has been no positive outcome.

As a result, all 35 entries were not judged but are shown as "Display Only" in the printed results.

The AFLACA J & R Committee have made the following recommendations that extra wording be added to the Competitor & Judging Manual Issue No 8 – April 2015:

Additional wording be added to the rule B9.6 page 11. -"The Competition Committee cannot take any responsibility for entries whilst in transit through Australia Post or other commercial carriers. However, the Competition Committee should take reasonable steps such as 'Signature Required' when posting entries to help avoid any possible loss of entries whilst in transit." Also, additional words to be added - That committees do not show competition co-ordinator or GEMBOREE wording etc in schedule and on the return post to entrants that the address from be a person's name only, not for example "GEMBOREE competition co-ordinator or words to that effect.

It is hoped that all competitors and the Competition Committees follow these directions and save further heartache, as we all know how many hours go into producing our wonderful creations.
